

Fact Sheet 25

Glossary - Key terms used in the planning process

Applicant: Person/Company who applies for development approval.

Application: The documents lodged with a relevant authority regarding a proposed development.

Approval: Legal document that allows you to undertake a development See Fact Sheet 4.

Building Code of Australia: The national technical document which sets the standards for building work within Australia

Building Rules: Any codes or regulations under the Development Act 1993 that regulate the performance, standard or form of building work.

Community Title: A community title divides land into lots (of which there must be a least two) and common property. Community Title can be a community scheme or a community strata scheme

Complying Development: A development which is listed in the Development Plan or specified in the Development Regulations 1993 as complying. Complying development will generally only have a low level of impact on the surrounding area

Council Development Assessment Panel: Abbreviated to CDAP. Panel formed by Council to consider and make decisions on certain Development Applications. See Fact Sheet 21.

Decision Notification Form: Issued by relevant authority to inform applicant of approval or refusal for development.

Development: Any activity which is defined as development under the Development Act 1993. See Fact Sheet 2 'Do I Need Approval'

Development Act 1993: Legal document which Governs planning in South Australia.

Development Assessment Commission: State Government authority for planning in South Australia.

Development Plan: Each Council area has a Development Plan that relates to that specific area. It is a document which provides guidelines for new development. Planners will assess a development application using the Development Plan. See Fact Sheet 16.

Development Plan Consent: Planning permission for a development, granted after a qualified planner or other relevant authority has assessed the application. See Fact Sheet 4

Electricity Act Declaration: Declaration form which states that a proposed development will not be contrary to the regulations for section 86 of the Electricity Act 1996. These regulations contain minimum safe clearance distances between buildings and power lines.

Gazetted: An announcement in an official article.

Land Division Consent: Planning permission for a land division development. See Fact Sheet 4

Lodgement: Providing information to the relevant authority for a development application which is then put into the system to be assessed.

MOUNT BARKER
DISTRICT COUNCIL

This document has been developed by the Planning Institute of Australia and the Local Government Association of South Australia.

Planning
Institute
Australia
South Australian
Division

Local Government
Association
of South
Australia

Fact Sheet 25 continued

Merit: Merit development is development that is not categorised as either Complying or Non-Complying as stated in the Development Plan, Development Act 1993 and Development Regulations 1993.

Non – Complying: Non-Complying developments are listed in the Development Plan and are land uses which are not envisaged or encouraged within a particular area

Planning Consent: See Development Plan Consent and Fact Sheet 4

Referral: When an application is sent by the relevant authority to government agencies or other bodies for assessment of a particular aspect of the development. See Fact Sheet 15

Relevant Authority: The agency responsible for assessing an application.

Representor: A person or body who wishes to support or object to a proposed development which has been on public notification.

Representation: A written support or objection to a proposed development which has been on public notification. See Fact Sheet 14

Significant Tree: A tree that is more than 2 metres in circumference when measured 1 metre above ground level

South Australian Housing Code: The South Australian Housing Code is produced by Planning SA and sets out building provisions that will comply with the Building Code of Australia

Strata Title: A sub division involving at least two units and a common area

Torrens Title: An example of Torrens Title is a home on its own block of land. There is a separate Certificate of Title for each separate piece of land.

Zone/zoning: Zoning is the division of a Council area into defined areas with similar characteristics, particularly the type of landuse. See Fact Sheet 17

MOUNT BARKER
DISTRICT COUNCIL

This document has been developed by the Planning Institute of Australia and the Local Government Association of South Australia.

Planning
Institute
Australia
South Australian
Division

Local Government
Association
of South Australia